

STEM workshop for teachers

Date: June 16th 2022, from 11.00 - 14.00

Location: Zoom platform – with simultaneous translation on Macedonian/Serbian/English

11:00 – 11:10 Nikica Mojsoska Blazevski, CEO Macedonia 2025

- Welcoming speech and information about the project STEM like a girl

11:10 – 11:40 Lecture: Gender inequality in STEM - Nikica Mojsoska Blazevski, CEO Macedonia 2025

11:40 Ana Tomovska Misoska, University American College Skopje

- Presentation of research on barriers girls face in choosing and developing their careers in STEM areas, analysis of research in North Macedonia.

12:00 Jelena Rakic, Ana and Vlade Divac foundation Serbia

- Analysis of various researchers and projects done in Serbia on the representation of girls and women in STEM areas.

12:20 Examples from practice

- Dalibor Todorović, teacher of High School 9. May from Nis Scentix ambassador, presentation of opportunities offered by Scentix for teachers.
- Silvana J. Binova, teacher for Mathematics, OU Straso Pindzur from Karbinici will present positive examples from practice.
- Alexandria Bleich, teacher for Science and Director for STEM Camps sharing STEM education in Canada

13:00 Discussion

Macedonia2025 and Foundation Ana and Vlade Divac, with the support from the Canadian Embassy in Serbia, North Macedonia and Montenegro launched the project “STEM like a girl”. The aim of the project is to inspire and motivate young girls to get an education and/or choose a career in one of the areas of STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics)